This information will help Sennen Parish Council to ensure that your needs have been taken account of when the Parish discusses allocations of affordable housing with Cornwall Council and Devon & Cornwall Housing Association.

We can only discuss your affordable housing requirements with the Council and housing association if you give us permission. See the next page.

Permission to discuss my affordable housing requirements

I (print name) .....

of (address).....

give my permission to Sennen Parish Council to hold and share information about me in relation to my need for affordable housing.

The information may include my name and address, my connections with the parish, my family and personal circumstances including employment, and particulars of my income and affordability, including any benefits, all in relation to my ability to pay rent for an affordable home, or to obtain a mortgage for an affordable home.

Sennen Parish Council confirms that it will only share information about you that is directly relevant to establishing your eligibility, affordability, and priority for local affordable housing, and that they will only share information with the Housing and Affordable Housing Teams of Cornwall Council and Devon & Cornwall Housing Association.
